Unoccupied properties

An unoccupied property is one which is no one's permanent residence. This discount is limited to 12 months from the date the property became unoccupied. After 12 months the 100% long term empty property tariff may apply.

Second homes (No discount applicable from 1.4.17)

A second home is a furnished house, used as a holiday home, which is no one's permanent residence. You must be able to provide documentary evidence that it is occupied as holiday home for at least 25 days in any 12 month period. Examples of acceptable evidence would be copies of insurance documents showing the property as a holiday home and examples of utility bills which show the fuel usage for periods of occupation.

Purpose built holiday homes

A purpose built holiday home is one which is used for holiday purposes but which is subject to planning restrictions preventing it being occupied all year round or which is built in such a way as it would not be suitable for occupation all year round (beach huts with no mains utilities for example). Please provide documentary evidence to support an application under this category e.g. a copy of the planning restriction.

Job related dwellings

A job related dwelling is:

- one which is provided by reason of your employment to you or your spouse where it is necessary for the performance of your duties of employment
- where the dwelling is provided for better performance of your duties of employment
- where there is a special threat to the employee's security and special security arrangements exist.
- Where you or your spouse is a minister of religion and it is used as a residence from which you perform your duties
- Where you or your spouse are required to live under a contractual arrangement to carry out a particular trade, profession or vocation.

This may not apply if you are a director of the company providing the accommodation or of an associated company.

Please provide documentary evidence to support an application under this category e.g. copy of your contract of employment.

Properties Requiring Major Repair
