Annandale South Ward 10 Profile

Key statistics - Settlements

Some details about the main towns and villages in the Annandale South Ward are given below

The Royal Burgh of Annan is the principal town of Annandale and Eskdale and the third largest in Dumfries and Galloway. It has a population of 8389 with 4 primary schools and 1 secondary school. It is located on the B721 which is parallel with and linked to the nearby A74(M) and A75, and on the Carlisle to Glasgow train route. The town contains a number of facilities including a busy high street that is home to a variety of shops, museum, library, leisure facilities, 5 churches, hotels and B&B's.

Eastriggs, Dornock and Creca has a population of 1840 and is located on the B721 which is parallel with and linked to the nearby A74(M) and A75, and on the Carlisle to Glasgow train route, although no station currently exists. Eastriggs has a small number of shops, post office, library, public house and church along with a primary school that feeds into Annan Academy. Eastriggs was a planned village built during the 1st World War in 1915 to accommodate workers in munitions factories and is known as the Commonwealth Village with many of the streets being named after cities in the Commonwealth.

Cummertrees and Cummertress West have a population of 644 and include the settlements of Newbie and Powfoot. Cummertrees is a rural, primarily residential village and is bounded by Annan, the Solway Firth, Ruthwell and Dalton. Cummertrees Primary School is situated on the outskirts of the village and feeds into Annan Academy.

Ruthwell and Clarencefield is a typical estate village which was built to service the nearby Comlongon Castle and was the accommodation for its employees and their families. It is situated on the B724 7 miles from Annan and has a population of 400.

Dalton and Carrutherstown has a combined population of 357. Carrutherstown is a small village situated on the A75 eight miles south-east of Dumfries and seven miles from Annan. Within the village there is a primary school, Hetland Hall Hotel and Dino Land, which is a tourist attraction that brings many visitors into the area on an annual basis. Dalton is a small settlement 4 miles south of Lockerbie with an 18th-century church. Dalton has a Thai restaurant, a pub and a well-used village hall.

Key Council Projects

Borderlands Growth Deal Initiative

The Borderlands Growth Deal Initiative brings together the five cross-border local authorities of Carlisle City Council, Cumbria Council, Dumfries and Galloway Council, Northumberland County Council and Scottish Borders Council to promote the economic growth and competitiveness of this area which straddles the Scotland-England border.

The Dumfries and Galloway Regional Economic Strategy and the South of Scotland Competitiveness Strategy highlight the importance of the Borderlands as a strategic economic development opportunity. In particular the M74 / M6 corridor, which includes the Chapelcross site, is a key economic driver for growth both in the region and nationally.

A study jointly commissioned by the Local Authority partners to develop a framework from which the initiative could be progressed. The commission focused on four themes:

- Analysis and objective view of the current work being undertaken by the local authorities.
- Consideration of the appropriateness of developing a regional growth model approach for the Borderlands area, given the analysis above and governance for such model.
- Economic appraisal of current position; evidence for the business case for the key projects; demonstrate that these projects are worth doing; their potential impact on GVA uplift.
- Development of clear recommendations and next steps for a Borderlands proposal; taking into consideration how future actions might play into existing structures.

The completed report is The Borderlands Inclusive Growth Initiative: Framework for Unlocking our Potential and this identifies a number of infrastructure and place based projects which will support economic growth. The framework and actions arising from it will be the foundation for bids to both UK and Scottish Governments for capital investment to deliver strategic infrastructure projects.

Key Partner Organisation Projects

Health and Social Care

One Teams - we will continue to develop a One Team approach across all parts of Annandale and Eskdale ensuring services and support are very localised and community assets are being fully utilised.

Forward Looking Planning - working with people at a much earlier stage to identify and record their wishes for future care. This encourages people to take responsibility much earlier and to think about their options for the future.

Community Link Programme - focuses on prevention and earlier intervention, helping people to identify and work towards meeting their personal goals and aspirations. The service can often reach people who are in need but who do not engage with existing services. The programme can greatly increase confidence and reconnect people with their community.

*The statistical information presented for each of the detailed outcomes is sourced from the Community Planning Outcome Profiling tool (CPOP). However slight anomalies exist relating to Wards 10, 11 and 12. Intermediary data zones do not match identically the geographic nature of electoral wards. The community of Eskdalemuir geographically sits within Ward 12 (Annandale East and Eskdale) but for CPOP is attached to the Moffat community which is in Ward 11. Similarly Eastriggs is geographically in Ward 10 (Annandale South) but for CPOP is attached to the Gretna community which is in Ward 12. In such cases, the statistical information cannot be disaggregated further to allow the information to be presented differently.
